

Club Name	Advisor	Class Code
Black Student Alliance	Mrs. M. Saul (msaul@flboe.com) and Mrs. M. Rosen (mrosen@flboe.com)	e5b4c4e
The Black Student Alliance educates students about black culture in the U.S. We feature discussions, movies, and guest speakers. We welcome all students to participate.
Asian Club	Mr. C. Pagano (cpagano@flboe.com) Mrs. P. Yoon (pyoon@flboe.com)	3apfoma
The Asian Club focuses on the different cultural aspects of Asia. Students will be given the opportunity to experience this culture through different types of music, art, and films.
Camera Club	Mr. D. Walden (dwalden@flboe.com)	kc4tk7b
General meetings typically involve sharing progress on individual projects and disseminating information about photo competitions and film festivals.
Chess Club	Mr. D. Walden (dwalden@flboe.com)	pdd6rbv
Students will learn the basic rules of chess, and move toward the use of clocks and the etiquette of tournament play. Students are ranked by experience. General meetings consist of pick up matches.
Computer Club	Mr. G. Glebas (gglebas@flboe.com)	pdqn6qy
The Computer Club provides students the ability to discuss and use computers in a more social and engaging environment. Students discuss software, hardware, and technologies that are used inside and outside the classroom. Students can enjoy discussing and playing video games.
Environmental Club	Mr. S. Wolowitz (swolowitz@flboe.com)	pjypqw2
Students work to raise awareness related to environmental issues such as sustainability, conservation, activism, and active stewardship of our ecosystem.
Fort Leeder	Mrs. P. Yoon (pyoon@flboe.com)	hv7dt4x
The Fort Leeder is a 16 page newspaper printed 3 times a year. We publish a variety of student interest stories that cover all the news and features pertaining to FLHS. We practice the journalism code of ethics and the standard methods of writing quality stories. We train and use Adobe InDesign and Photoshop, and we also train editing and layout procedures.
Future Business Leaders of America	Mr. C. Della Fave (cdellafave@flboe.com)	b6km7xr
The FBLA is composed of students in grades 9-12, with an interest in business. Students will compete locally, statewide and hopefully nationally against their peers in business related topics. Students will also learn business functions relating to marketing, accounting, and finance culminating in Shark Tank.

Future Teachers of America	Ms. J. Bijari (jbijari@flboe.com)	b3ewcdg
FTA helps prepare possible future educators for the classroom as they become involved in the school and state levels of this organization. Members learn the value of being part of a professional association that advocates on behalf of children and public education.
Greek Club	Ms. S. Karabatsos (skarabatsos@flboe.com)
The Greek Club is an organization aimed to maintain Greek culture among our Greek student population, and engage and educate non-Greek students about the history of Greece, its culture, language, literature, traditions, food, dance, celebrations and important holidays.
Hebrew Club	Ms. J. Bijari (jbijari@flboe.com)	bushjvq
The Hebrew Club focuses on Jewish culture in our community by learning about various holidays, foods, traditions, and learning the Hebrew alphabet. Students will be given the opportunity to experience this culture through different types of music, art, films, celebrations, and important holidays. We welcome all students to participate!
Interact Club	Mr. C. Della Fave (cdellafave@flboe.com)
This club is dedicated to helping others, whether it be donating money, offering community service, or projects to help the less fortunate. Earn community service hours while helping your peers!
Italian Club	Ms. C. Bernardo (cbernardo@flboe.com) and Mrs. F. Marotta (fmarotta@flboe.com)	5575uu3
The Italian Club celebrates the Italian culture in our community through: heritage-based trips, fundraising, and partnering with other clubs with common goals. Students gain a deeper understanding of Italy and it's language and are always enthusiastic to share this with our school community.
Key Club	Mrs. S. Elkhechen (s.elkhechen@flboe.com)	abtw4jx
Key Club is an international student led organization that provides its members with opportunities to provide service, build character and develop leadership.
Math League	Ms. A. Johnson (ajohnson@flboe.com)	6nj3ekx
This club is for students that enjoy solving higher level mathematical questions. It is a great way to test knowledge and skills outside of regular math courses. The club is recommended for those who wish to pursue a career in mathematics and is also an excellent way to interact with others that have a passion for math. Students are required to be fully committed and attend weekly/bi-weekly meetings where they will practice past BCML Contests to prepare for future events.

Model UN	Mr. M. Pokoj (mpokoj@flboe.com)	k5dqnc
Model UN is a national organization that has students research and discuss global issues from various perspectives including, but not limited to national governments, non-governmental organizations and key individuals. Students prepare for and attend conferences where they compete against other students from other schools.
Peer Outreach Service Team	Mrs. R. Sandouk (rsandouk@flboe.com) and Ms. Nicole Clark (nclark@flboe.com)
The Peer Outreach Service Team (POST) is a peer-helping program which has been offering a variety of services since 1973. In addition to peer mediation and mentoring, Peer Leaders lead workshops to help create a positive school climate from elementary school through high school.
PRISM (GSA)	Ms. D. Ladd (dladd@flboe.com)	lnulvjo
The GSA will address issues related to the LGBTQ community, enrich their understanding of diversity and demonstrate tolerance and acceptance. This is achieved through group discussions, interactive research, and presentations, documentaries, and lessons. We create a safe environment where students can become familiar with the diverse community we encounter in and out of school. PRISM ensures that a school community is a supportive environment for all individuals, regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity, thereby fulfilling the school's legal and moral responsibility to provide an equal learning environment for all individuals.
SADD Club	Coach B. Straub (bstraub@flboe.com) and Coach K. Horton (Khorton@flboe.com)	42tpuf6
The SADD Club raises awareness to students about destructive decision making. SADD participates in activities to develop a connection to the community and foster a caring relationship to make a positive impact on our youth.
Science League	Mrs. P. Konstantinova (pkonstantinova@flboe.com)
This club competes in the Bergen County Science League in earth science, environmental science, biology, chemistry, and physics. We participate in 4 competitions throughout the year. During meetings, we prepare for competitions and provide extra help for science students.
Spanish Club	Mrs. S. Elkhechen (selkhechen@flboe.com) and	akp2qdc
The Spanish Club goals are to expand our Hispanic cultural knowledge in and out of the classroom. To practice and expand our ability to communicate in the language and embrace and welcome other cultures.

Speech & Debate Club	Mrs. S. Elkhechen (selkhechen@flboe.com)	wwu6lgv
Born to argue? The Debate Team is for YOU. Learn how to use information, evidence and statistics to prove your point in a formal setting.
STEAM	T. Atkinson (tatkinson@flboe.com)	oc7ww7y
All hands on work with science, from hot air balloon making to 3D printing and everything in between! We seek out competitions to attend each year and when we are not competing, we are busy planning and performing new and exciting activities. Every meeting is a new adventure, so stop on by!
Student Council	Ms. Horton (khorton@flboe.com) Mr. Straub (wstraub@flboe.com)	53bup6c
The Student Council is a representative structure composed of students, through which they can become involved with the affairs of FLHS and the community. The purpose is to work together with staff, students, and the community to benefit the school and its students as a whole.
The Voice	Mr. B. Barron (bbarron@flboe.com)	6wpz3e6
The Voice is Fort Lee High School's magazine of original student writing and art. All FLHS students may submit poetry, prose, art and photography for a chance to be published.		